Motor Legal Expenses

If you have an accident that is not your fault, the hard fact is that you may still find yourself out of pocket and this is where motor legal expenses comes in.

Where a third party is responsible, the policy will attempt to recover the following costs:

- Policy excess
- Replacement vehicle, where a responsible insurer has been identified, on a like-for-like basis - i.e. you don't get a Micra courtesy car to replace your BMW
- Loss of earnings
- Damage to personal effects
- Vehicle repair costs
- Medical expenses or compensation for injury to you and your passengers

Car Repair

In a non-fault accident, where a responsible insurer has been identified, we can organise our vehicle repairers to act on your behalf; leaving you with nothing to pay and therefore none of the hassle of having to claim back from your insurers.

Total Loss Negotiation

If your vehicle cannot be repaired our experienced staff will help you negotiate the settlement value with insurers.

We will act on your behalf and keep you informed every step of the way – all you need to do is give us a call.

In the Event of an Accident

Take care of your own health first, and then check for injuries to passengers
